WHEREAS the Parties believe that mediation may assist in such efforts.

IT IS THEREFORE STIPULATED AND AGREED, AND UPON COURT APPROVAL HEREOF, IT IS HEREBY ORDERED THAT:

1. The Honorable Philip Bentley, United States Bankruptcy Judge for the Southern District of New York, is to serve as the mediator (the “Mediator” or “Judge Bentley”) in the Mediation in these chapter 11 cases. At all times in the performance of his duties as the Mediator, Judge Bentley will be acting in his official capacity as a United States Bankruptcy Judge, with all of the privileges and immunities of a United States Bankruptcy Judge.

2. The Mediator is authorized to mediate any issues and disputes related to the Mediation Topics, including the facts pertaining to the Mediation Topics which shall be submitted to the Court at the conclusion of the mediation. The scope and procedures for the Mediation, including procedures for the development of relevant facts and the submission of written position statements, will be determined by the Mediator following consultation with the Parties as he deems appropriate.

3. Pursuant to Local Rule 9019-1, the Mediation is subject to the Procedures Governing Mediation of Matters and the Use of Early Neutral Evaluation and Mediation/Voluntary Arbitration in Bankruptcy Cases and Adversary Proceedings (the “SDNY Mediation Procedures”).

4. Time and Place of Mediation. The Mediation will commence at a time and place to be agreed upon by the Mediator and the Parties, which is currently anticipated to be August 14, 2024, and will take place in New York, New York at a location to be determined by the Mediator. At least one representative for each Mediation Participant shall attend the Mediation in person, but principals may attend the mediation remotely if a representative is also attending in person. The Mediation shall terminate on the earlier of: (a) the date on which a resolution has been reached or the Mediator agrees that the Mediation Participants are at an impasse; and (b) the date that is six weeks following the entry of this Stipulation and Agreed Order or such later date as the Mediation Participants may agree.

5. Participation by Any Party. Any party in these chapter 11 cases (including the United States Trustee and any creditor) that wishes to attend the Mediation may participate in the mediation and must email counsel to the Post-Effective Date Debtors (Chris Koenig at chris.koenig@kirkland.com) by August 12, 2024 indicating their desire to participate; provided that any party that participates in the Mediation shall be considered a Mediation Participant and shall be required to sign a joinder to this Stipulation and Agreed Order and agree to be bound by its terms, including, but not limited to, those provisions regarding the protection of information disclosed at Mediation and the requirement that at least one representative shall attend the Mediation in person. Corporate creditors that would like to participate in the Mediation but are unable to attend in person may contact counsel to the Ad Hoc Committee of Corporate Creditors for more information on how they can join such group and participate remotely (Joseph E. Sarachek, joe@saracheklawfirm.com).

6. Submission of Materials. Each Mediation Participant may directly submit to the Mediator any materials (the “Submission”) in form and content as the Mediator directs. Prior to the Mediation, the Mediator may confer with the Mediation Participants to determine what materials would be helpful. The Submission must not be filed with the Court.

7. Protection of Information Disclosed at Mediation. The Mediator, the Mediation Participants, and their advisors are prohibited from divulging, outside of the Mediation, any oral or written information disclosed by the Parties in the course of the Mediation. No person may rely on or introduce as evidence in any arbitration, judicial, or other proceeding, evidence pertaining to any aspect of the mediation effort, including but not limited to: (a) views expressed or suggestions made by a Mediation Participant with respect to a possible settlement of the dispute; (b) the fact that another Mediation Participant had or had not indicated willingness to accept a proposal for settlement made by the Mediator; (c) proposals made or views expressed by the Mediator; (d) oral or written statements or admissions made by a Mediation Participant in the course of the Mediation; and (e) documents prepared for the purpose of, in the course of, or pursuant to the Mediation, including but not limited to the Submissions. Without limiting the foregoing, the Mediation Participants are bound by (x) rule 408 of the Federal Rules of Evidence and (y) any applicable federal or state statute, rule, common law, or judicial precedent relating to the privileged nature of settlement discussions, mediations, or other alternative dispute resolution procedures. All statements and Submissions made during the course of the Mediation are privileged settlement discussions, and are made without prejudice to any Mediation Participant's legal position, and are inadmissible for any purpose in any legal proceeding. Information otherwise discoverable or admissible in evidence does not become exempt from discovery, or inadmissible in evidence, merely by being used by a Mediation Participant in the Mediation.

8. Discovery from Mediator. The Mediator may not be compelled to disclose to the Court or to any person any of the records, reports, summaries, notes, communications, or other documents received or made by the Mediator while serving in such capacity. The Mediator may not testify or be compelled to testify regarding the Mediation in connection with any arbitration, judicial, or other proceeding. The Mediator will not be a necessary party in any proceedings relating to the Mediation. Nothing contained in this paragraph prevents the Mediator from reporting (a) the status, but not the substance, of the mediation effort to the Court or (b) whether a Mediation Participant failed to participate in good faith in the Mediation.

9. Preservation of Privileges. The disclosure by a Mediation Participant of privileged information to the Mediator does not waive or otherwise adversely affect the privileged nature of such information.

10. The results of the Mediation are non-binding upon the Parties except to the extent the Parties enter into a binding settlement as part of the Mediation.

11. The Parties are authorized and empowered to take all actions necessary to effectuate the relief granted in this Stipulation and Agreed Order.

12. Notwithstanding rule 6004(h) of the Federal Rules of Bankruptcy Procedure, the terms and conditions of this Stipulation and Agreed Order are immediately effective and enforceable upon its entry.

13. The Court retains exclusive jurisdiction with respect to all matters arising from or related to the implementation, interpretation, and enforcement of this Stipulation and Agreed Order.
